

Alaska Burma Road

Facility and Location

Burma Road is located approximately ten miles southwest of the city of Kodiak on Kodiak Island in south central Alaska. The Bureau of Land Management owns the property which is part of the 29,870 acre Kodiak Naval Station. This 2.25 mile long road runs through Devil's Canyon, bordered on the northwest by Barometer Mountain and on the southeast by Old Women's Mountain. Devil's Canyon was reportedly used as an excess bomb drop area by aircraft returning to the naval station and as an ordnance disposal area.

Media Sampled and Findings

Groundwater — Prior to 2007, three samples reported no detection. These samples were taken at the open burn/open detonation (OB/OD) area used for ordnance fragments, fuses, and flares.

Appropriate Actions

Not Applicable. All samples were below the EPA and DoD Preliminary Remediation Goal of 15 ppb.
